Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Karen Lunn graduated from Chamberlain High School, received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Dakota Wesleyan University and her Master of Arts in Elementary Curriculum from The University of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Karen will retire from Longfellow Elementary School in Mitchell, South Dakota, after 44 years of teaching; and,

Whereas, Karen's retirement days will find her traveling, enjoying her hobbies of quilting and gardening, and spending time with her daughter, Jodi, and two grandchildren, Tessa and Sam; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan as her colleagues, friends, and family gather to honor Karen on May 13, 2008:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 13, 2008, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eight.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
